Probate Court Matters.

Probate court was in session Monday of this week, and disposed of the following business, to wit:

Publication was ordered to all concerned that application to sell real estate belonging to the Thomas B. Moore estate had been made for the purpose of creating assets wherewith to pay the debts of said estate. All money now on hand belonging to said estate amounting to 48 cents on the dollar of the debts was ordered paid out on the debts.

Thos. J. Redmon was given until Nov. 10th, to inventory of the Charles Redmon estate, and a copy of letters was made for U. P. railroad company against which said estate has a claim.

W. T. Crexas, as administrator of the Edwin F. Vest estate, was ordered to pay widow the $400 allowed her by law and $200 for balance year's support.

Warren Harris' demand against the Stafford estate was dismissed.

John Shuttles, having been restored to his right mind, and discharged from the asylum, his guardian was ordered to make settlement and turn his estate over to him.

A collateral inheritance tax of 5 per cent was levied and assessed against Nicholas Kuntzman's estate, amounting to $20.33.

The demand of Garah Carson against his father's estate for board of his father was tried by a jury, which returned a verdict for the estate. The case will probably be appealed to the circuit court.

The following demands were allowed: International Stock Food Co., vs. Robt. Patterson estate, $39.09.

John Shields vs. Nicholas Kuntzman estate, $49.00.

Stokes & Bridgeman vs. B. M. Beesley estate, $45.00.

Dr. Chandler vs. Albert Hare estate, $14.50.

Striking Object Lesson.

Moses Burt, of 711 North Twenty-fourth street furnished an object lesson this forenoon to young men who neglect their franchise privilege. He is ninety-seven years old, but he walked eight blocks to register, and wrote his name without using spectacles. He registered in precinct C of the Fourth ward at Twenty-second and Clay streets. Burt is a Republican.—St. Joseph News-Press, Oct. 6, 1906.

Mr. Burt is an uncle of Charles Harris, who is now making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Petree, in this city. His family must be a long-lived one. Mr. Harris is past 84 and is in fairly good health for one of his age. A sister of Mr. Burt's died a year or two ago in Lincoln, Kas., at the age of 87.

Program

of the Woman's Union for Monday, Oct. 22, 1906:

"Eugene Field"
Roll call, quotations from Field.
Solo, "Little Boy Blue," Mrs. Bridgeman.

"Sketch of Field's Life," Mrs. Coburn.
Instrumental solo, Mrs. Frank Allen.
Paper, "Eugene Field's Works," Mrs. Alberta Green.

The Teachers' Meeting.

The Holt county teachers' meeting which was to be held October 18-20, has been postponed. It will be held as early as possible in the month of November. Further announcements about the meeting will be made in the county papers next week. A. R. CONNOR, County School Commissioner.

—Mrs. Lydia Watson, of Kansas City, is visiting her sons, Frank and Ed., near this city.

—C. J. Hunt and wife are entertaining Mel Ribble and wife, of Chicago. Mr. Ribble is a brother of Mrs. Hunt.

—Fannie E. Meyer returns to her work in Shennandoah, Ia., after a couple of weeks' visit with her parents and friends here.

—Tom S. Foster is back from Kansas, where he has been the past summer, working. He thinks Holt county is good enough for him, and says he thinks that he will remain here permanently.

—The Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, are having the entire interior of the church decorated and frescoed. As Freeman Bros. are doing the work, it is needless to say that a first class job; every respect will be the result.

—Charley Kooek, Ed. Fuhrman, Geo. Stephenson, James Cain, Ralph Mark, Alf Kunkel, James Bucher, Ben. Morgan, Ben. Kirk and Guy Gifford, have returned from Sedalia, where they spent a week, seeing the sights of the state fair, and its completeness and elaborateness in every detail, its new live stock pavilion, the largest of its kind in the world, all go to make the Missourian proud that he is a Missourian. They came back home loud in their praises, insisting that Holt must send a large delegation with a large exhibit to the state fair next year.

—Hugh F. Biggs and wife, left this week, for St. Joseph, where in all probability they will remain this winter. Mr. Biggs has not sold his property here, but he and his wife have gone there so that Mrs. Biggs can keep house for her daughters, three of whom have good positions there, and by this means it will be better for all. They have not yet fully determined whether they will locate there permanently or not. Hugh will see the sights, having not been away from Holt county since 1886, and has never seen an electric or trolley car. Their numerous friends are sorry to have them leave, but wish them success, health and prosperity in their new home.

Judges of Election.

At the Big Lake.

Last Thursday, the 4th inst., being the fourth quarterly meeting of the Holt County Medical Society, it was, according to previous arrangements, held at Big Lake; and was attended by the M. D.'s, and their wives. Those present were:

Dr. C. L. Evans and wife, of Oregon; Dr. F. E. Bullock and wife, Dr. J. F. Chandler and wife, of Forest City; Dr. B. T. Quigley and wife, Dr. J. M. Tracy and wife, and Dr. E. M. Miller, of Mound City; Dr. J. M. Davis and wife, Dr. Gray, Dr. E. Kaltenbach, of Craig; Miss Obenshon, of Fincastra, Va.

Only a short business session was held, during which several cases were presented and discussed. The day was an ideal one, and the Doctors vied with each other in giving their wives a good time; the time was spent in boat riding on the lake, fishing and seeing a good time generally. In a fishing contest, Dr. Evans won first prize—catching eight, while Mrs. Evans was a close second with six to her credit. Mrs. Davis, of Craig, and Dr. Tracy tied for the booby prize, neither one catching a fish, although Dr. Tracy claimed he could "fish as good as anybody."

And that dinner and supper, at John Iden's hotel—how that fried chicken and ham and mashed potatoes, with brown gravy, and those salads, etc., did disappear; it was out of sight. We don't know whether it was an extra effort of Mr. Iden's cook or whether our appetites were "whetted up" by boat riding and fishing, but whether it was one or both, all the guests were loud in their praises of the meals served. The ladies seemed to enjoy the outing more, if such a thing could be, than the men, and elected themselves honorary members of the society, and promised each other to just go right along with their husbands whenever they had a meeting after this; so it is a condition, not a theory now, that is confronting the medical fraternity of Holt county. The next meeting will be held at Craig the first Thursday in January. A GUEST.

Order of Publication.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Holt.

In the Probate Court of the County of Holt and State of Missouri, August adjourned term, 1906. Held on the 5th day of October, 1906.

Sarah J. Moore, administratrix of the estate of Thomas B. Moore, deceased—Order of Publication.

Now here at this 5th day of October, 1906, comes Sarah J. Moore, administratrix of the estate of Thomas B. Moore, deceased, by Harry Dungan her attorney and presents to the Court her petition, praying for an order for the sale of so much of the real estate of said deceased as will pay and satisfy the remaining debts due by said estate, and yet unpaid for want of sufficient assets, accompanied by the accounts, lists and inventories required by law in such case; on examination whereof it is ordered that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased be notified that application as aforesaid has been made, and that unless the contrary be shown on or before the first day of the next term of this court, to be begun and held on the 12th day of November next, an order will be made for the sale of the whole or so much of the real estate of said deceased as will be sufficient for the payment of said debts; and it is further ordered that this notice be published in The Holt County Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published in this county, for four weeks before the next term of this court.

And it is further ordered that personal notice of the making of this order be served upon all the resident heirs of said deceased, more than ten days before said first day of said term of said court.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Holt.

I, Henry T. Alkire, judge and ex-officio clerk of the Probate Court of said county, hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the original order of publication therein referred to, as the same appears of record at my office.

Witness my hand as judge and ex-officio clerk of said court and the seal thereof, done at my office in Oregon in said county, this 5th day of October, A. D., 1906.

HENRY T. ALKIRE,
Judge and Ex-Officio Clerk of Holt County Probate Court.

Our Special!

A 320 acre farm, 7 miles southeast of Oregon, county seat of Holt County, Mo., and 4 1/2 miles from Nodaway and Forbes, stations on the main line of the K. C., St. Joe & C. B. R. R. 280 acres in cultivation, divided as follows: 80 acres in corn, 60 acres in meadow, 40 acres in timber, consisting of white oak, hickory, walnut, etc., balance in grass and stubble.

BUILDINGS: Dwelling, 1 1/2 story; 7 rooms; barn, 32x42; smoke house, hen house, etc., all in good repair. Well watered with three wells, wind mill and good springs. Land more or less rolling and all cultivated land in a high state of cultivation. A splendid stock and grain farm.

PRICE: $50 per acre, and is worth every cent of it.

BUT LISTEN: The owner has recently lost his wife, is in poor health himself, and wants to leave the farm at once. In order to make a quick sale, he will throw in 65 acres of standing corn, which looks good for 40 to 50 bushels per acre; 900 or 1,000 bushels of wheat, now in granary, or if sold before the farm is sold, its equivalent in cash; 250 bushels of oats, now in granary, and a big mow full of fine timothy hay. If corn should be cribbed before sale is made, will charge for husking. The wheat land is rented for coming year and purchaser will get half of crop.

TERMS: One-third cash, balance on 3 or five years' time, at 6 per cent interest. Now if this proposition appeals to you, GRAB IT! It won't remain open long. We are submitting this proposition to others. It is a great bargain and somebody is going to take it soon. The first man ready to do business gets it. Call on or address

PETREE BROS. & BENTON, Oregon, Mo.

For shooting the swift flying, heavily feathered ducks and geese the Marlin 12-gauge repeating shotgun has no superior. This gun is exceedingly strong in construction and yet is not heavy. It is loaded to throw an excellent pattern with great penetration. The solid top keeps out the weather and the brush and tops of the blind, and the side ejector prevents the empty shells from being a nuisance to the shooter. It's the best bad weather gun.

The Marlin 12-gauge is suited to all forms of bird and trap shooting, and for durability, strength and ease of action is unequalled. Made for both black and smokeless powder and for heavy loads. Two separate extractors make sure work.

The Marlin Experience Book is full of real shooting stories. Free, with 130-page Catalogue, for 3 stamps. Write to-day.
